- In meeting with General Alvarez March 29, he told Ambassador that he had a number of matters which he considered to be of sufficient importance and urgency to warrant a trip to Washington. Among them are status of various FMS matters, continuing GOH interest in acquiring modern air transport capability and military situation in Nicaragua.
- Ambassador believes Alvarez' idea has considerable merit and recommends that serious consideration be given to having General Vessey personally or JCS as an institution extend invitation to Alvarez to visit Washington at mutually convenient time in April. It would be desirable
