Honduran position is that Mexican Embassy's sheltering of Sandra Nuñez is an improper application of the principle of asylum (per Article 4 of the 1954 Caracas Convention on Asylum) and essentially an unfriendly act.

- 4. COMMENT: Mexican Embassy here has record of being somewhat of a terrorist boarding house. Hopefully this practice will be subject of review by new Mexican administration. We recognize asylum is an especially delicate issue in Latin America but we sometimes wonder if Mexicans haven't carried the concept a bit far.
  - 5. Mexican Ambassador himself is known to have reservations about practice since on at least one occasion he has denied shelter to asylum seekers only to have his decision reversed by instructions from Mexico.
