Subject: Joint Staff Crisis Action Team Activation for ELIGIBLE
     RECEIVER 97-1 (U)

1. ~~(S)~~ A tailored Joint Staff Crisis Action Team (CAT) is established effective 9 June 1997 in the Crisis Situation Room (CSR) of the National Military Command Center (NMCC). This CAT will provide a centralized coordination element responsive to issues attending to ELIGIBLE RECEIVER 97-1. The CAT will function under the Director for Operations and operate on a two-shifts per day basis.

2. (U) Normal staff operations and functions remain unchanged. Responsibility for routine logistics, operations, and plans and policy issues is retained by respective directorates/agencies. The CAT will respond to requirements of an immediate nature in coordination with the Service staffs and will draw upon staff and administrative support as required. CJCSM 3430.01, "Crisis Staffing Procedures of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff," 31 July 1996, specifies representation from the directorates. Request you provide required action officers (AOs) reflected in the enclosed CAT Manning Worksheet. AOs will be assigned one per 12-hour shift to support the two-team shift schedule.

3. (U) All personnel assigned to the CAT must have a TOP SECRET clearance with SI/TK access and be authorized entrance into the NMCC. Personnel who are identified as CAT team members will remain so until released by the Director for Operations.
