

TELECON

Mr. William Rogers/Secretary Kissinger
June 16, 1976
10:35 am

RELEASED IN PART
B6

K: That White has lashed out at the Chileans down there. I think I have made it very clear what my strategy is. I have not become a super liberal. This is not an institution that is going to humiliate the Chileans.

R: The instructions were clear to him. This is in an effort to try individual cases.

K: According to the Washington Post after the Chileans ~~expressed~~ rejected the report, he made a passionated defense of it and then humiliated the Chileans. It is a bloody outrage.

R: Then he has gone beyond his instructions.

K: What are we going to do?

R: I am going to call him right now and find out exactly what happened.

K: Who is White anyway?

R: Number 2 to Maillard.

K: Why don't we get him out?

R: I will call him. I don't trust anyway.

B6

K: I know but it was a direct quote. I understand you have been confirmed -- congratulations.

R: Did it happen this morning?

K: Yes.

R: And what about the others?

K: They all were.

R: Good

END