

Group to Promote the Implementation of the Helsinki
Accords in the USSR

Special Notice

The organs of the KGB, not having lawful grounds for interfering with the activities of the Group to Promote the Implementation of the Helsinki Accords in the USSR, have resorted to illegal methods of acting on its members, specifically to blackmail and intimidation. Thus, members of the KGB have recently warned the son of Malva Landa that, if she does not put an end to her "activity" in the group, - he may be fired from his job.

2 December 1976.

Alexeyeva

Korchak

Bonner

Orlov

Ginzberg

Slepak

Grigorenko

Scharansky

[Translated by Anya Grenier for the National Security Archive]